ATTEND A VIRTUAL EVENT

Read, Think, Chat

May 28, 2020 at 11:00 a.m.

Join us from your computer for an informal community discussion about recent science journalism, facilitated by the MPM education staff, and including expert perspective from Dr. Christopher Tyrrell, MPM's Research Curator of Botany.

DISCOVER SOMETHING NEW

Museum Object Spotlights

View object spotlight video presentations (all less than eight minutes) informally produced by our Museum Studies students from the safety of their own homes due to COVID-19. The presented artifacts were chosen by MPM staff based on the students' interests and areas of academic concentration at UWM.
